FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

KNOWESIS AND KBRWYLE AWARDED USSOCOM PRESERVATION OF THE FORCE AND FAMILY (POTFF) PROGRAM SUPPORT WORK

Fairfax, VA (March 2019)

Knowesis, in partnership with KBRwyle Government Services, were awarded the U.S. Special Operations Command (USSOCOM) Preservation of the Force and Family (POTFF) Program support contract. The POTFF Program is designed to build and implement a holistic approach to address the family stressors and pressures of deployment on Warfighter families.

Knowesis and KBRwyle has produced a framework of best practices and technical approaches that will identify and implement innovative, valuable solutions across the USSOCOM Enterprise aimed at improving the short and long-term well-being of our Special Operations Forces (SOF) warriors and their families through the support of four primary domains: Human Performance, Psychological Performance, Spiritual Performance, and Social Performance. To accomplish this, Team Knowesis will leverage data analytics, business intelligence, and health care delivery approaches to strengthen the behavioral capacity and resiliency of Special Operations Forces (SOFs).

“We are so excited to be part of this DoD initiative to support the service members of the Special Operations Community. This mission perfectly aligns with the Knowesis beliefs and core values. It is our honor to work with and serve these Warriors,” said Alex Gonzales, Project Manager of the POTFF service delivery team based in San Antonio, TX.

Knowesis specializes in solving business challenges through strategic planning and capacity building, evaluation and data analysis, strategic communications, enterprise reporting, and program management. Knowesis applies our core functional competencies to the healthcare industry and are highly integrated within the DoD medical research and health policy environment.
